Dear Millie

Your last Portland letter to me dated I think the 12th and the one to Gene of the 10th both rec.

Think you have been
"going it" pretty extensively,
and also think that your uncles and aunts and cousins have been very kind to plan and carry out so many excursions.
I hope they will give us an opportunity to reciprocate some time.

I have been sending letters for you to the Everett House, Saratoga and there must be quite an accumulation of mail there now.

Dear
to Auntie,
yours
Mamma,
I suppose ^{the} ~~your~~ best man will be for us to write to Mr. Holbrook to get it and forward to you. I will consult Love. I send slips from papers. Clara Hawley's brother was one of the hazed. They went to a private house where he was boarding and caught him and shaved off ~~half~~ his mustache and said they would shave off his hair but did not. Then tossed his room mate in a blanket. Henry Brier has gone to Anaheim to teach. Emma Curley to Navarro. Lilly Wall has the position at Centreville I presume Love has told you that our boarder has gone. He was perfectly satisfied with the tale but he did not feel at home.

In other words we did not get him and make much of him. Papa was just delighted to have him gone. He disliked him and disliked having him here very much,
and so indeed did I but wanted the money. He went over to Mrs. Clough to talk about us but they shut him up so short that he got up and left.
Joe has gone to his first political meeting. Page speaks at Centreville.
Curiosity took him. I believe he and Harry had a bargain to go. Harry is going to try and get a

He has gone to Mrs. Clough to board.
